

Alstons

cabinets collection
January 2010

“Welcome to the 2010 furniture collection from Alstons Cabinets which features a range of contemporary new styles. We have also revisited and refreshed some of our best selling timeless classics.”

John Alston
Managing Director
Alstons Cabinets

It's amazing how much heritage goes into offering the contemporary & invigorating the classics

At Alstons we are proud of our heritage, our business today is run by brothers John and David Alston, who are the fifth generation of the family descended from brothers William and Ambrose Alston who were both fine cabinet makers during the early Victorian period operating initially from Sudbury in Suffolk.

John joined the business in 1979, becoming a director in 1987 and Managing Director of Cabinets in 1995. David joined in 1978, became a Director in 1990 and Managing Director of Upholstery in 1995. In 2008 John's daughter, Jessica Alston joined the business working in the design department as the first of the sixth generation of Alston's working in the business. 2010 sees Jessica's sister, Holly join the business in a marketing capacity to help design this brochure and the look and feel of the Alstons business as we continue to thrive in our sixth generation.

timeless style and quality

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT:
The experience of over 100 years of furniture design and manufacture has resulted in a traditional range, which provides timeless style and ranges that will stand the test of time and enhance any bedroom.

IN-HOUSE DESIGN STUDIO:
By controlling all aspects of the design and production in-house we ensure that our designs, colours and finishes are at the forefront of modern thinking whilst maintaining the highest level of manufacturing quality throughout.

traditional Paris

A fashionable and premium collection of 20 pieces that incorporates the latest design thinking. It gives a sophisticated solution that's equally at home in a master or guest bedroom by providing a semi-fitted solution at a fraction of the price of fitted.

All Paris pieces are painted to a high quality finish in white and feature deep routed doors and drawers as standard. Paris offers a range of options from wide bi-fold wardrobes, a variety of internal storage options, to work desks, storage and classic bedroom pieces.

contemporary collection

designs for modern life, sometimes with a twist

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT:

We invest considerable time and money researching the market and looking in particular at fashion and how people want to live in the modern world. This background ensures we continue to introduce up to the minute contemporary designs whilst never compromising on quality.

IN-HOUSE DESIGN STUDIO:

Our team are continually striving to produce product ranges that lead the market in terms of style and their suitability for modern living. By keeping this important function in-house we are able to be a fashion leader as well as a traditional specialist.
